Fixing and Flipping Real Estate Marty Boardman 2014-03-01 Let's face it—fixing and flipping houses is sexy. Who doesn't love the idea of buying a rundown, mold-infested shack and transforming it into someone's dream home for massive profits? Reality TV shows make it look so easy. A little paint here, some new kitchen cabinets there, and presto! The house is sold for big bucks and everyone lives happily ever after. If only it were that simple. Fixing and flipping houses is a business. In order for a business to survive, prosper, and grow, systems must be put in place. Fixing and Flipping Real Estate: Strategies for the Post-Boom Era is a book that breaks down the four essential components of a fix-and-flip business, giving you the building blocks to efficiently buy and sell 1 to 20 properties a month in today's post-boom era housing market. You'll learn about each of the boxes: Acquisition—How to find and buy a profitable real estate deal. Rehabbing—How to systematically remodel a house and how not to underimprove, or overimprove, your property. Sales—How to sell your flip for the highest possible price in the shortest possible time. Raising Capital—How to get the capital you need to grow your business, including using other people's money, for your real estate deals without getting sued or going to jail. In the post-real estate boom era, fixing and flipping is again a solid business--especially in the "sand" states—Arizona, California, Nevada, Texas, and Florida, among others. It's also a good bet in states as diverse as North Carolina and Washington State. And with the real estate market projected to bottom out nationally in 2012 (this time for real), there are plenty of houses to be renovated and plenty of money to be made by the enterprising in all fifty states. This book shows real estate investors everything they need to know to get started fixing and reselling houses either as a substantial sideline or a full-on business.

Flipping Properties William Bronchick 2001 Real estate has probably made more millionaires than any other financial vehicle. Flipping Properties highlights one method of investing in real estate, "flipping," which is a great way to begin building wealth with real estate. Flipping is growing so popular, in fact, that in Broomfield, CO (a suburb of Denver), 40 percent of newly built homes were sold to investors who intended to "flip" the properties. This practice is continuing to grow in cities across the country. Flipping Properties teaches beginners how to reap the financial and personal rewards of a full or part-time venture in real estate investing, including cash flow, security, and long-term wealth.

Sarah's Key Tatiana De Rosnay 2008-02-07 The Multi-Million Copy International Bestseller Released in 2010 as a major motion picture starring Kristin Scott Thomas, Sarah's Key is perfect for fans of The Tattooist of Auschwitz and All the Light We Cannot See. 'A remarkable novel. Like Sophie's Choice, it's a book that impresses itself upon one's heart and soul forever' Naomi Ragen, author of The Saturday Wife Paris, July 1942. Sarah, a ten-year-old Jewish girl, is arrested by the French police in the middle of the night, along with her mother and father. Desperate to protect her younger brother, she locks him in a cupboard and promises to come back for him as soon as she can. Paris, May 2002. Julia Jarmond, an American journalist, is asked to write about the 60th anniversary of the Vel' d'Hiv' roundup - the infamous day in 1942 when French police rounded up thousands of Jewish men, women and children, in order to send them to concentration camps. Sarah's Key is the poignant story of two families, forever linked and haunted by one of the darkest days in France's past. In this emotionally intense, page-turning novel, Tatiana de Rosnay reveals the guilt brought on by long-buried secrets and the damage that the truth can inflict when they finally come unravelled.

How a 17-Year-Old Can Do House Flipping Without Losing Money Lou Vachon 2020-09-21 This Teenager Made 12 Million Pounds from Real Estate by the Age of 19. Here's How: Have you ever heard of Akshay Ruparelia? The 19-year-old from Barnet, UK, sold his first property before the age of 18, and by 19, he'd become the owner of a company that generated 12 million pounds in revenue over the course of one year. Yes, a teenager did that! And if he can bask in glory and millions of 50-pound banknotes, so can you. The key is to find the real estate investment strategy that yields the highest returns. Currently, that strategy is flipping. House flipping contributes to faster returns on investment and is a much lower risk than striving for an alternative like rental income, for example. In order to keep your house flip from becoming a flop, however, you need a proven methodology and a step-by-step masterplan for launching a successful business in your teenage years. Without the proper guidance, inexperienced flippers risk committing one of many mistakes that are bound to cost money, time, and profits. Over-improving a property, having no idea about what local buyers are interested in, ignoring zoning, and trying to accomplish everything on your own are some of the biggest issues that will make you fall flat, even if you have all the capital in the world to begin in. So, what's the secret to successful house flipping that even a teenager can master? It's very, very simple - you need to understand where maximum profit and minimum risk hide. In How a 17-Year-Old Can Do House Flipping Without Losing Money, you will discover: What it takes to generate a profit of over $60,000 per property (and that's just the average for the US!) 6 bulletproof steps to follow when flipping a property for the first time How to become a successful flipper with $10,000 or less as initial capital How to sharpen your hunches and know for sure where the best flipping properties are located Renovation tips to spruce up the house without throwing money out the window Stuff you can do on your own, and processes you need to hire professionals for (which will actually save you money) Legal and financial considerations - boring for your young mind but quite essential for successful business establishment And much more! It's never too early to start thinking about your financial future. Setting up a successful business in your teen years and enjoying consistent stability from that point forward isn't as far-fetched as you may think. You don't need a millionaire dad or an Ivy League business school degree to accomplish just that. Flipping houses for profit is growing in popularity for a very simple reason - many who take up such a project excel at it and scale up their efforts in the near future.
